

At our core is a creative soul. In a world that puts tremendous pressure on us to be like everyone else, we must DECIDE to reignite our passion, not wait to be inspired. We must dust and nourish our own soul in order to live — truly live — a fulfilling life. The Poet's Way® Retreat is a customized program offered for individuals looking to engage in a concentrated program.

One-to-One Retreats

WHAT'S POSSIBLE? FIND OUT HERE!

Situated on the shores of Oldham Pond in Massachusetts, this is the perfect space for exploring, creating and making possibilities come alive.

Available for those in need of inspiration, rejuvenation and direction.

Prior to your stay, we begin our conversation. You submit pre-work information that is essential in creating the best possible, customized experience while you are here — and the most pointed, engaging and complete outcome.

Your plan will include a grounded understanding of who you are, what you are doing and a focused, prioritized set of next steps.

In addition, we will determine your plan for accountability and follow-up to ensure you are supported on your journey.

Customized programs include:

- In-depth pre-work and preparation for your visit
- Personalized program follows The Poet's Way®
 - Start Authentically
 - Explore Creatively
 - Live Expressively
- Use of certified assessment tools
- Outdoor activities/local field trips
- Meals and accommodations available

Costs are discussed and determined based on individual programs.

Put your life on pause. Reignite your passion. Discover the possibilities.
